

The Art Of Music

A study day with Adrian Sumner

Grosvenor Museum, Chester. Sat 7th December. 10 am – 3.30pm.

Admission £15. Includes Tea, coffee, biscuits.

For booking please call Adrian Sumner on 01606 782516 or or email adriansu3913842@aol.com

10.00am. Arrive. Register, Coffee, tea, biscuits.

10.30. Lecture 1. The Art of Music. Looking at the amazing diversity of images inspired by, or portraying Music-making throughout history. Includes Vermeer, Rembrandt, Caravaggio, Watteau, Early Italian Angels, singers from Ancient Greece, via Van Eyck, to Balla, Severini and the Futurists to the ever-popular Jack Vettriano.

11.45. tea, coffee, etc.

12 .00. Lecture 2. The Art of Dance. A catalogue of frozen motion, from the Muses in Mosaic, and the Maenads(Bachantes) in plaster, marble and Salon Art, to the sea-change that was the Royal Ballet, Ballet Rambert and the Ballets Russes, and the dynamism of Loie Fuller, Josephine Baker, Martha Graham, Michael Clark and Pina Bausch..

1.15. Lunchbreak. Feel free to bring sandwiches, pasta or whatever takes your fancy, or to step out to any of the numerous local takeaways.

1.45.Lecture 3. The Art of the Record Sleeve (including, of course, cassettes,CDs etc. but concentrating on when the images were big enough to see).

3.00. Questions, points of interest, thank you and goodbye.

